

Mentoring for ESD-Leadership 2018

Project: The Turquoise Change Project

OBJECTIVES

- Raising awareness around conservation and sustainability
- Acknowledging & promoting conversation around the life on Andaman & Nicobar Islands and Zanzibar

MAIN ACTIVITIES

- Exposing the teachers to concepts of ESD and its relevance for addressing global problems at the local level, using ESD Expert Net material through workshops
- Implementing the case study method of teaching from the book
- Bio diversity campaigns
- School exhibitions

METHODOLOGICAL APPROACH

Training of trainers for teachers, using case studies from the ESD Expert Net publication

Project Responsible

Tista Mukherjee

Target Group

Direct target group: teachers
Indirect target group: students

Duration of the project

December 2017- September 2018

Implementation Status

Ongoing: pilot workshop with 15 teachers completed;
currently teachers are applying the ESD Expert Net material in school

IMPACT

Who & how many people will be reached

- Directly: 15 teachers
- Indirectly: teachers of 4-5 peripheral schools
- Indirectly: 500-1000 students

Addressed SDGs

On behalf of

Federal Ministry
for Economic Cooperation and Development

Coordinated by

ENGAGEMENT
GLOBAL
Service für Entwicklungsinitiativen

Key Partner
UNESCO Global Action Programme on Education for Sustainable Development